

CATALINA ISLAND CONSERVANCY

BECOME A CATALINA MARINERO

Marineros are members at the Adventurer ($125) level and above that support the Conservancy's mission to be a responsible steward of Catalina's lands through a balance of conservation, education, and recreation. Members of the Catalina Marineros support group are particularly interested in boating and receive special invites for social events, hikes, cruises and participate in projects that support the restoration and protection of the Island. Join Today!
